Conference Session 2 – CEO Debate

Conference Room, Level -2

Pilot shortages, EU261, Brexit, regulatory burden and consolidation are just a few of the commercial and operational challenges currently being faced by our airline members. With these issues being faced on daily basis, how do airlines actually survive and continue operating? Is it possible, in this cyclical industry, that our sector will be able to manage these multiple complex challenges and continue to grow and prosper? This session will provide stimulating, motivational and impactful conversations between four of ERA's airline CEOs who face these challenges each and every day. Leading and conducting the panel will be industry personality and well-known commentator John Strickland, with inspiration from:

- Mark Darby, CEO, Aurigny
- Árni Gunnarsson, Managing Director, Air Iceland Connect
- Sandrine de Saint Sauveur, President and CEO, APG Airlines
- Michael Weinstein, CEO, TUS Airways
